Transition Planning for Students with Special Needs: Let's Map Out a Plan

SPEAKERS:

Geneviève Ducharme – SWLSB Consultant, Pedagogical Services
Sara Mattigetz – SWLSB Guidance Counsellor

For parents of students presenting with special needs, planning your child's future is a task that requires careful consideration. It is advantageous for your child's development to investigate the various educational pathways as well as navigate transitions between home life and school life, elementary and high school, and high school and beyond.

This presentation aims to empower you with information to assist you with your child's education plan and journey through the school years and onto life after leaving the Sir Wilfrid Laurier School Board.

YOU CAN ATTEND IN PERSON ⇨ LOCATION: Sir Wilfrid Laurier School Board
235, montée Lesage, Rosemère, Québec J7A 4Y6
(Maximum seating capacity: 60 people)

DEADLINE TO REGISTER (only if attending in person): Friday, May 11th, 2018
